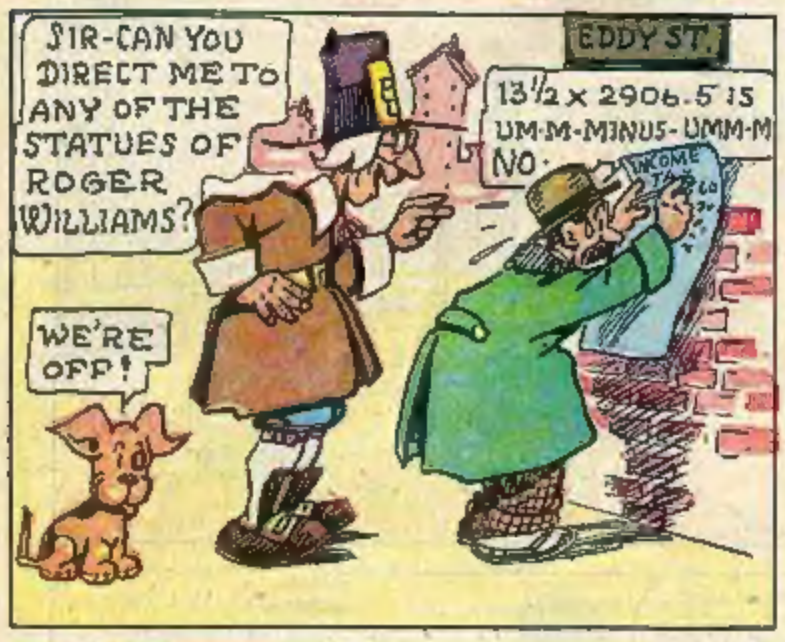
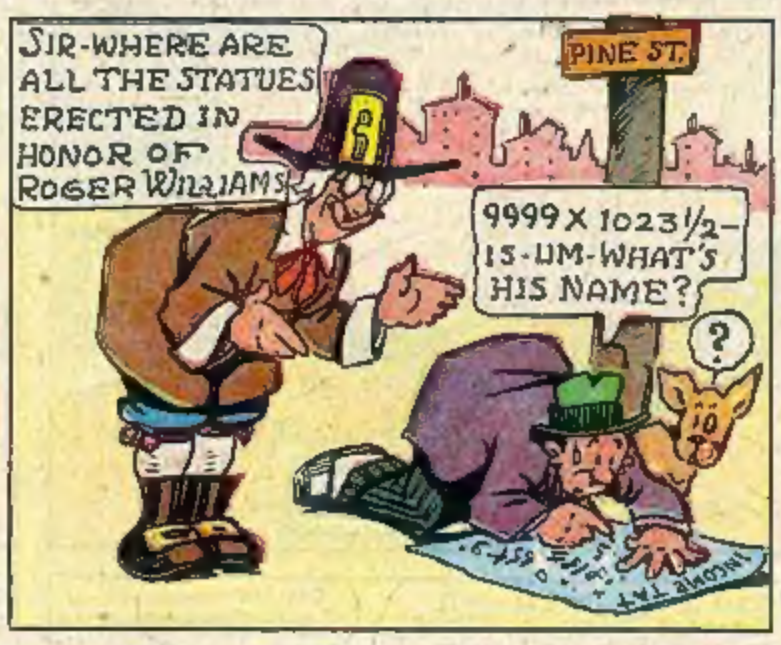
Eight Pages of Comics IN TWO PARTS

The Providence Sunday Journal

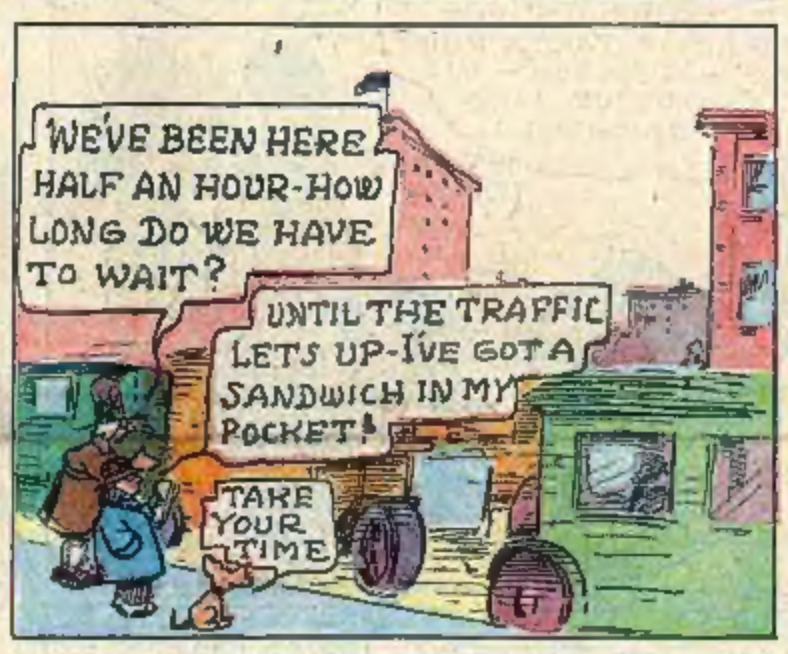
Eight Pages of Comics IN TWO PARTS

Sunday, March 14, 1926.



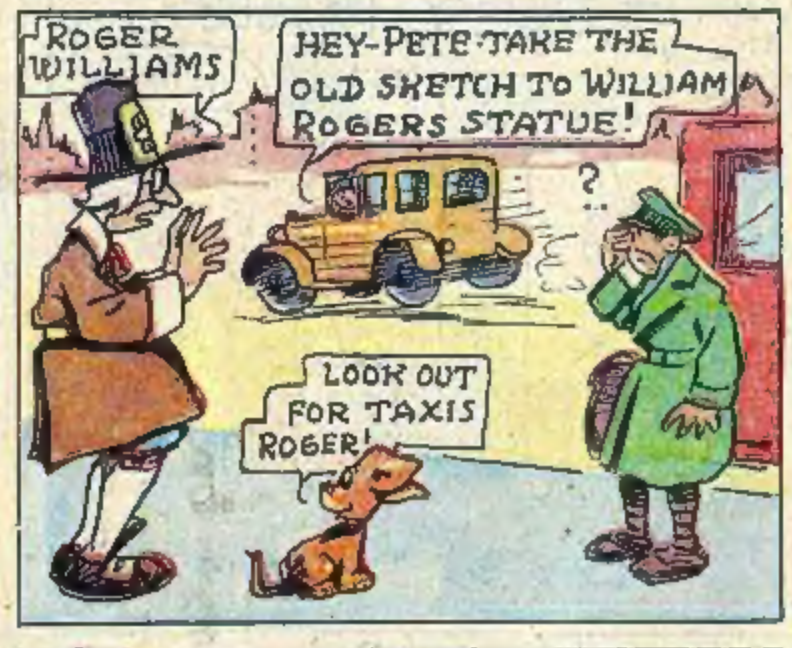


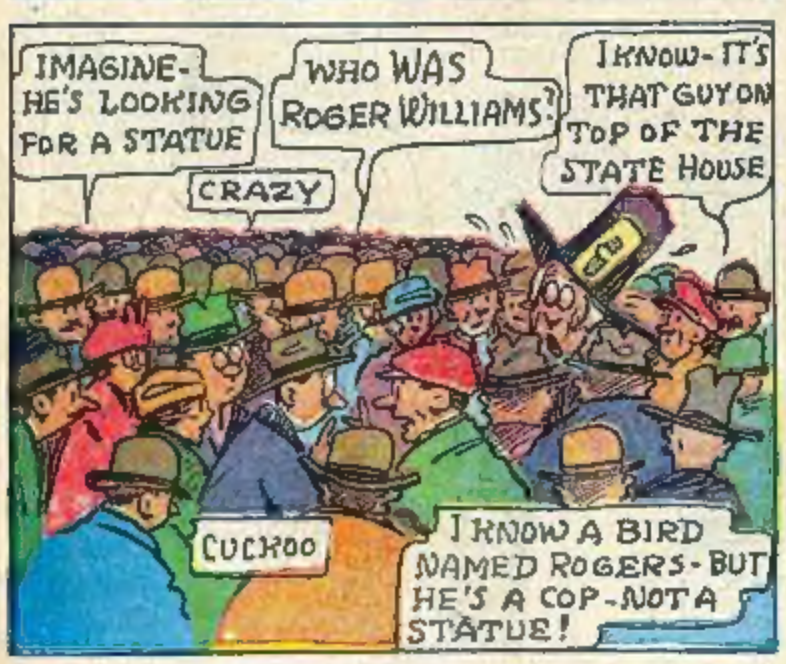
SIR-I'M LOOKING FOR A STATUE OF ROGER WILLIAMS
FOLLOW ME TO THE FEDERAL BUILDING-THERE ARE SOME STATUES IN FRONT-MAYBE ONE OF 'EM'S IT!
HERE WE GO!



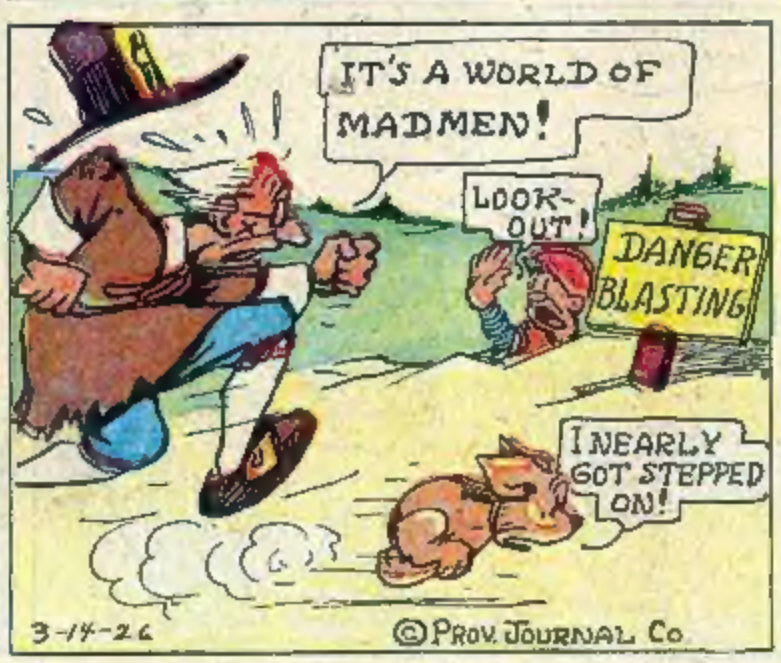
WE'VE BEEN HERE HALF AN HOUR-HOW LONG DO WE HAVE TO WAIT?
UNTIL THE TRAFFIC LETS UP-I'VE GOT A SANDWICH IN MY POCKET!
TAKE YOUR TIME

WE WAITED TWO HOURS AND DIDN'T SEE THE STATUES
I KNOW-WE'LL GO BACK UP TOWN AND GET A TAXI AND COME BACK IN IT-I'VE GOT TO GET THIS RETURN IN!
IT TOOK BRAINS TO DOPE OUT THAT SYSTEM





IMAGINE-HE'S LOOKING FOR A STATUE
CRAZY
WHO WAS ROGER WILLIAMS?
I KNOW-IT'S THAT GUY ON TOP OF THE STATE HOUSE
CUCKOO
I KNOW A BIRD NAMED ROGERS-BUT HE'S A COP-NOT A STATUE!



Eight Pages of Comics IN TWO PARTS

The Providence Sunday Journal

Sunday, June 6, 1926.

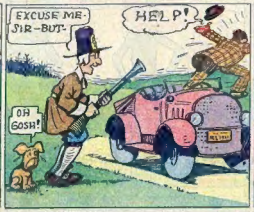
Eight Pages of Comics IN TWO PARTS

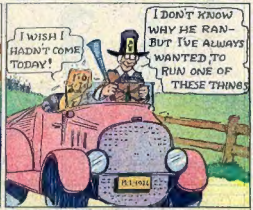
ROGER WILLIAMS RE-DISCOVERS HIS OLD HOME TOWN.

By-Henderson-

Eight Pages of Comics IN TWO PARTS

The Providence Sunday Journal

Sunday, November 7, 1926.




Eight Pages of Comics IN TWO PARTS